25X1 15. [] Received a call from Jack Maury, Assistant Secretary of Defense (Legislative Affairs), who expressed interest in the recent

25X1 []

25X1 16. [] A short time later I talked to Sam Goldberg, State Department Congressional Relations, who said the trip had been cancelled to the Soviet Union as a result of numerous Senate changes in the timing of the trip.

I mentioned to Goldberg that the Senate Armed Services Committee was holding the transcripts of Mr. Colby's and Secretary Schlesinger's testimony before the Arms Control Subcommittee pending Secretary Kissinger's appearance before that Subcommittee.

25X1 17. [] Ed Braswell, Chief Counsel, Senate Armed Services Committee, called and asked if we could give him some help in preparing a press release for Chairman Stennis concerning the recent press revelations. I referred him to the New York Times article and then he asked when the funding began. I told him FY 1970 and that it had been before all our Subcommittees and the funds approved by the Appropriations Subcommittees. I said on his Committee only Senators Stennis and Thurmond had been informed.

25X1 18. [] Scott Cohen, in the office of Senator Charles Percy, called concerning the stoning incident involving President Echeverria of Mexico. He asked if the Senator could have a letter from us stating that we had nothing to do with it. I suggested that a letter from the State Department would be much better and made arrangements for this through [] Chief, LA Division.

25X1 20. [] Talked to [] concerning the [] (Dorothy Fosdick, staff of the Permanent Investigations Subcommittee of Senate Government Operations Committee, had asked if the Agency had any connection with this company.) [] said the Army has come to us and asked us to introduce their representative to the president of the company. After some discussion, I asked [] if he would check with Mr. Blee and see if we couldn't get out of this.

25X1A Later in the day, [] called and said he did talk with Mr. Blee and we would extricate ourselves.

25X1 21. [] Talked with Russ Rourke, White House staff, and alerted him to about twenty pieces of legislation which are before the Kastenmeier Subcommittee of Courts, Civil Liberties and the Administration of Justice of House Judiciary Committee, on the subject of surveillance. I said we had a paper on this which I would send him. I thought the White House should be aware of this legislation.
